Marquette Professor to Lecture Here

Daniel Maguire, professor of Theology at Marquette University, will present a lecture, "The Freedom to Die", on March 3, 8 PM, in the Twombly-Burden Room.

His recent book, Death by Choice, is provoking considerable discussion in theological circles. Time recently included him among Catholic theologians who believe that euthanasia "may be justified in some cases". (July 1, 1974, p. 58).

Other works include "Death and Resurrection of Moral Theology", in Commonweal, Nov. 15, 1974; "Ethical Method and the Problem of Death", Anglican Theological Review, July, 1974; "Death by Choice", Linacre Quarterly, May, 1974; and "Death by Chance, Death by Choice", Atlantic, January, 1974.

The works of Dr. Maguire are on display in O'Hare Academic Center.

Deadline for Financial Aid Posted

Any student requiring financial aid for 1975-1976 should file a Parents' Confidential Statement (PCS) or a Student's Financial Statement (SFS) by the March 1 deadline.

All students in the classes of '78 or '77 should also apply for the Basic Educational Opportunity Grant (BEOG).

All forms mentioned are available in the Financial Aid office in Ochre Court. Contact Mrs. Weiss, Financial Aid Director.

Recruiter on Campus

Mrs. Ruth Shaw, Placement Director and Admissions Representative of Katherine Gibbs School, will be on campus Friday, March 14, at 1:30 p.m. to talk to students who are interested in the Entree Program.

The Entree Program is an 8-weeks program to prepare college graduates for rewarding assignments in the business world. Students who have completed their junior year may enroll in the program during summer vacation and then take a two-weeks free refresher training after graduation. The program is open to both men and women. Students who are interested may sign up for an interview. Further information is available in the Placement Office.

Work Scholarships for This Summer

The Paralegal Institute of New York have a number of Work Scholarships for paralegal students having financial need. Each of the scholarships covers 100% of tuition and expenses for books and materials. The value of each scholarship is $1,100. The paralegal training program is 13 weeks long and is conducted weekday mornings or evenings. New students may enter the program any Monday.
